

Coffee With an Activist

Living Room Café

5900 El Cajon Blvd., San Diego, CA 92115

January 27, 2016 8:00 a.m.

Sponsored by PIAC

Featuring

Steve Binder, Esq.

Private Attorneys $15, Non-profit/Government Attorneys $5
Law Students free with ID

One hour MCLE Credit Available to Attorneys for Elimination of Bias

Deputy Public Defender Steve Binder will be discussing the leading causes of homelessness, the challenges they face, organizations that help, and how both attorneys and citizens can get involved.

Steve Binder is a lawyer with the San Diego Office of the Public Defender where he has practiced since 1988. He co-founded the Homeless Court Program (HCP) in 1989 and the Veterans Treatment Court (VTC) in 2011. In May 2013, he received the Thomas Wynn Sr. Memorial Award for Lifetime Achievement from the National Coalition for Homeless Veterans.

Mr. Binder's full biography, including awards for establishing programs for the homeless and veterans, can be viewed at our website at piaclaw.org.

Space is limited. Please RSVP at the Public Interest Advocacy Clinic Meetup page: <http://www.meetup.com/Public-Interest-Advocacy-Clinic>

Please visit our website for other activities and information on how to help get involved in the public interest.

Public Interest Advocacy Clinic

Phone: (619) 768-0077
PIAClaw.org